

The privately owned Renaissance Schloss Ebenau in Weizelsdorf in its picturesque location in the Rosental (valley of roses) has been the headquarters of the Gallery Walker since 1996. From early summer to late autumn, exhibitions are mounted here in this special place surrounded by a garden of constantly changing sculptures, focusing mainly on contemporary Austrian and international art. Paintings, drawings, wall objects and sculptures by artists such as Bernard Aubertin, Christian Ludwig Attersee, Hans Bischoffshausen, Bruno Gironcoli, Gustav Januš, Gudrun Kampl, Kiki Kogelnik, Peter Krawagna, Julian Opie, Hans Staudacher, Barbara Szuets, Reimo Wujounig, and many others can be discovered on four levels covering an area of 800m<sup>2</sup>. These links between art, architecture, nature and history hold a special fascination for visitors who are warmly welcome to spend time here. The gallery is open mainly at weekends but also by prior arrangement (Tel: +43 6502130505).

The gallery was founded in 1988 by Judith Walker in Hermagor/Gailtal, Carinthia. She managed it with great enthusiasm and launched several important art projects, for example Venetian Heads by Kiki Kogelnik in 1994. Judith's husband Erich supported her in implementing further projects and was himself active as the co-founder of the Sculpture Park Drau Rosental. Various locations such as Schloss Reifnitz on the Wörthersee (Lake Wörther) or the Hollenburg near Köttmannsdorf also housed over many years some very special exhibitions. Now, besides Schloss Ebenau (executive management Carolin Walker), the Old Parsonage in Saak is another site privately managed by the Walker Family but publicly accessible. From the end of April this year works by Manfred Bockelmann are on display there.
